

In today's CC, create an express server with the following routes and its specification.

/

This is the home or root route. This route will return/send the number of times the website was visited.

Every time someone visits the root route in the browser, you need to increase the counter.

/reset

This route should reset the counter to 0 for the above route and return an HTML file with content "Reset successful" as h1 tag.

Click here for demo GIF